Case is Continued.

The case against Enoch Douglas, colored, arrested by Detectives Bryant and Smith, charged with stealing $5 from Mary Joseph about eighteen months ago, was yesterday continued until October 23 by Justice Crutchfield. Douglas is alleged to have gone into the Joseph woman's store at Twenty-ninth and P Streets and to have asked her to give him a $5 bill for change. When she secured the bill, he is alleged to have drawn a revolver and, seizing the money, walked from the store threatening to shoot if the woman cried out. The police have been searching for him since that time.

Install Fire Hydrants.

The Administrative Board yesterday instructed the SuperIntendent of the Water Works to install fire hydrants at all intersecting cross streets and wherever there are sufficient mains along Semmes Avenue, Woodland Holghts.

POWER COMPANY WOULD CHANGE RATE SCHEDULE

The Virginia Railway and Power

The Virginia Railway and Power Company desires to change its schedule of rates and discounts for retail light and power service in Richmond and Petersburg. The company has filed its petition with the State Corporation Commission, and will be given a hearing.

If the petition is granted, rates will be reduced for some consumers of light and power and increased for others, The company desires to put its proposed schedule into effect April 1, 1915. It is represented that making the contemplated changes the immediate result will be a loss to the company; that there will be a reduction in its revenues of nearly $1,400 a month, or about $17,000 a year. The company says that more 90 per cent of the customers it is now serving in the curritory of Richmond and Petersburg.

The identity of the customers who profit and those who lose by the photoposed revised schedule will probably posed revised schedule will probably posed revised schedule will probably to be disclosed when the hearing is held. The commission has fixed the hearing for this morning at 10 o'clock.
